Rights and Obligations under the Massachusetts Family and Medical Leave Law, M.G.L. c. 175M

Employer/Employee Contributions to the DFML Family and Employment Security Trust Fund

On October 1, 2019, contributions to the Department of Family and Medical Leave (DFML) Employment Security Trust Fund will begin. Payroll employer will send contributions to the DFML on behalf of productions and production employees. As controlling employers, productions are responsible for funding the employer contribution to PFML.

Currently, the total contribution amount is 00.75% of wages. Of that 00.75% total contribution amount, there is a split: 17.5% is a family leave contribution and 82.5% is a medical leave contribution.

Under the law, employers are permitted to deduct from employees' wages up to 40% of the medical leave contribution (82.5% of 00.75% of wages) and up to 100% of the family leave contribution (17.5% of 00.75% of wages).

Explanation of Benefits

- Beginning January 1, 2021,
  - Employees may be entitled to up to 12 weeks of paid family leave in a benefit year for the birth, adoption, or foster care placement of a child, or because of a qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a family member is on active duty or has been notified of an impending call to active duty in the Armed Forces;
  - Employees may be entitled to up to 20 weeks of paid medical leave in a benefit year if they have a serious health condition that incapacitates them from work
  - Employees may be entitled to up to 26 weeks of paid family leave in a benefit year to care for a family member who is a covered service member undergoing medical treatment or otherwise addressing consequences of a serious health condition relating to the family member's military service.
- Beginning July 1, 2021,
  - Employees may be entitled to up to 12 weeks of paid family leave in a benefit year to care for a family member with a serious health condition.
- Employees may be eligible for up to 26 total weeks, in the aggregate, of paid family and medical leave in a single benefit year.
- An employee's weekly benefit amount will be based on the employee's earnings, with a maximum benefit of $850 per week.

Job Protection, Continuation of Health Insurance, No Retaliation

- Job Protection: Generally, an employee who has taken family or medical leave under the law must be restored to the employee's previous position or to an equivalent position, with the same status, pay, employment benefits, length-of-service credit and seniority as of the date of leave.
- Continuation of Health Insurance: The controlling employer must continue to provide for and contribute to the employee's employment-related health insurance benefits, if any, at the level and under the conditions coverage would have been provided if the employee had continued working continuously for the duration of such leave.
- No Retaliation: It is unlawful for any controlling employer to discriminate or retaliate against an employee for exercising any right to which such employee is entitled under the paid family and medical leave law. An employee or former employee who is discriminated or retaliated against for exercising rights under the law may, not more than three years after the violation occurs, institute a civil action in the superior court.

How to File a Claim

Employees must file claims for paid family and medical leave benefits with the DFML using the Department's forms. Forms and claim instructions will be available on the Department's website www.mass.gov/DFML before January 2021.

Employees are required to provide at least 30 days' notice to their controlling employer of the anticipated starting date of any leave, the anticipated length of the leave and the expected date of return. An employee who is unable to provide 30 days' notice due to circumstances beyond his or her control is required to provide notice as soon as practicable.
